

Potential perverse outcomes and possible positive synergies among different fire and weed management combinations in urban biodiversity and fire risk management.